A world map showing the percentage of the population aged 65 and over in 2019. The map is divided into three main regions: Amerika (North and South America), Groot Europa (Europe, Africa, and Asia), and Groot Azië (Asia and Oceania). The map uses a color scale to represent the percentage of the population aged 65 and over, with a legend at the bottom showing four categories: <25 (lightest orange), 25-50, 50-75, and >75 (darkest orange). The map shows that the highest percentages of the population aged 65 and over are found in North America, Europe, and parts of Asia, while the lowest percentages are found in South America and parts of Africa and Asia.
